WARNING

Under Georgia Law, and equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities, pursuant to Chapter 12 of Title 4 of the official code of Georgia annotated.

I, _____, have read and understand the Georgia Equine Liability Law. I hereby release, waive responsibility, discharge and covenant not to sue Old School Equestrian, its representatives, agents, directors, sponsors, or volunteers, jointly or individually, for any loss or claim as a result of personal injury or property damage which might arise from my participation in any program or activity directly or indirectly involving Old School Equestrian, whether or not upon premises then occupied by Old School Equestrian.

Furthermore, I the undersigned, hereby release and hold harmless Nicole McTaggart and employees of Old School Equestrian, and other horse owners jointly or individually, harmless from any and all costs, claims, and liabilities of any kind arriving out of my use of the facility, any animal activities, any equine, dog, cat or animal on the property, living at, visiting, or boarding at the facility. As a consideration for my visiting the facility, I assume any risk of damage to property, animal, or injury to myself or anyone visiting the facility with me. I understand that handling and/or riding a horse is an extremely dangerous activity and that there are numerous obvious and non-obvious inherent risks always present in such activity despite all safety precautions. No horse is a completely safe horse, and if frightened or provoked may divert from its training and act according to its natural survival instincts which may include, but are not limited to, biting, striking, kicking, bolting, and running from perceived danger, which can cause injury or death to me or others. I understand there are certain risks inherent with handling animals and I accept those risks.

Furthermore, I understand that if it is determined I am in any way detrimental to and/or uncooperative with the policies and procedures of Old School Equestrian, then in place for the safety and protection of the animals and other persons present, I may be denied further permission to participate in the activities and programs of Old School Equestrian, wherever they may occur. Notwithstanding, the foregoing Release of Liability and Waiver of Responsibility shall remain in full force and effect.

Should Old School Equestrian, change its name or relocate at any time, the foregoing agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

I, _____, have read and understand the foregoing agreement, warnings, and Release of Liability and Waiver of Responsibility. I further understand and agree that I am assuming all risks attendant to the handling and/or riding of horses.
